Application Instructions

Circled letters on the form above correspond to the instructions below. You must complete all shaded areas.

A. Both your paternal and your maternal surnames are required. Otherwise, provide your full name as it appears on file at the Commonwealth Election Commission.

B. Give your father's and mother's first names.

C. Do not leave blank. Enter "N/A" if not applicable or if you are a first time voter.

D. Provide the complete street address of your Puerto Rico voting residence. A post office box is not sufficient. This address must be different from the one provided in Item 4 and must be within Puerto Rico.

E. Print the complete address where you want your ballot sent - usually your current mailing address. It must be different from the address you provided in Item 3. Please note: members of the Armed Forces and merchant marine must utilize an APO/FPO address if available.

F. If you do not list a party affiliation, you cannot vote in primary elections. You must indicate your political party affiliation when applying for a primary ballot (Example: Democrat, Republican) or write "none" in Item 6 of the FPCA. Political party affiliation is not required if only requesting absentee ballots for general elections.

G. The certifying officer who signs Item 9 must state here: "I certify that [voter] is a [member of the U.S. Army, student at XX University, etc., whichever is applicable]." See Sections I and II C below for details.

H. Check ONE box.

I. Applicant must sign and date in the presence of an oath taking official.

J. Specific persons must complete this section and Item 7 above. See Sections I. and II.C. below for details.

I. UNIFORMED SERVICES

A. Who Can Do It

These procedures apply to persons who are U.S. citizens, residents of Puerto Rico and members of the Uniformed Services and their family members. Uniformed Services are defined as members of the U.S. Armed Forces, merchant marine, commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

B. When To Do It

Submit a separate FPCA to request a ballot for each election (for local, Commonwealth and Federal offices).

To register permanently, you must register in person. However, you may register temporarily to vote in the primary and general elections for Resident Commissioner.

(1) To register temporarily and request an absentee ballot, send your completed FPCA to the Commonwealth Elections Commission so that it arrives not later than 30 days before the election. You will be sent a special absentee ballot which lists only the candidates for Resident Commissioner to the U.S. Congress.

If you are permanently registered and wish only to request an absentee ballot, send a completed FPCA to the Commonwealth Election Commission so that it arrives not later than 60 days before the election. Alternatively, you may request a ballot by using the Petition for Absentee Ballot, which is available by mail either from the Elections Commission or the political parties. You will be sent a ballot for local and Federal offices.

If your absentee ballot request arrives between 59 and 30 days before the election, you will be sent the special absentee ballot which lists only candidates for Resident Commissioner to the U.S. Congress.

(2) Return your voted ballot so that it is postmarked not later than election day. Local election officials must receive it before 3:00 p.m. on election day.

The Commonwealth Elections Commission begins mailing ballots approximately 45 days before the election.

Due to its status, Puerto Rico does not send representatives to the U.S. Senate or directly participate in the election of the President and Vice President of the U.S.

At the Federal level, a Resident Commissioner to the House of Representatives is elected.

If you are outside the U.S. and have not received your Commonwealth ballot in a timely manner, use the Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot. See instructions in Chapter 2, page 12.

C. Oath/Witness Requirements

The FPCA and the ballot return envelope must be sworn to. The person who administers the oath is verifying your identity and your status (for example, military spouse, merchant marine member, etc.).

Military members, their spouses and their dependents must obtain the signature of a commissioned officer.

Merchant marine members must obtain the signature of the highest officer on board.

D. Electronic Transmission of FPCAs and Ballots

Puerto Rico does not allow electronic transmission of the FPCA, the blank absentee ballot or the voted absentee ballot.

Instructions continue in Section III: Uniformed Services & Civilians Outside U.S.

II. CIVILIANS OUTSIDE U.S.

A. Who Can Do It

These procedures apply to persons who are U.S. citizens, residents of Puerto Rico and overseas electors. The term “overseas elector” means a U.S. citizen who resides outside the U.S. and (but for such residence) would be qualified to vote in Puerto Rico.

- those studying outside of Puerto Rico in a duly accredited educational institution (consult Section B below for ballot type eligibility)
- agricultural workers under contract with the Agricultural Employment Program of the Commonwealth Labor Department outside Puerto Rico (consult Section B below for ballot type eligibility)
- members of the diplomatic or foreign aid service of the U.S., or of exchange programs between Puerto Rico and a foreign government (consult Section B below for ballot type eligibility)

- spouses and children of the above (consult Section B below for ballot type eligibility)
- airline crew members who are working outside Puerto Rico on election day (consult Section B below for ballot type eligibility)
- overseas electors (consult Section B below for ballot type eligibility)

B. When To Do It

Submit a separate FPCA to request a ballot for each election.

To register permanently, you must register in person. However, you may register temporarily to vote in the primary and general elections for Resident Commissioner.

(1) If you are not permanently registered, request an absentee ballot by sending your completed FPCA to the Commonwealth Elections Commission so that it arrives not later than 30 days before the election. You will be sent a special absentee ballot which lists only the candidates for Resident Commissioner to the U.S. Congress.

If you are permanently registered and wish only to request an absentee ballot, send a completed FPCA to the Commonwealth Election Commission so that it arrives not later than 60 days before the election. Alternatively, you may request a ballot by using the Petition for Absentee Ballot, which is available by mail either from the Elections Commission or the political parties. You will be sent a ballot for local and Federal offices.

If your absentee ballot request arrives between 59 and 30 days before the election, you will be sent the special absentee ballot which lists only candidates for Resident Commissioner to the U.S. Congress.

(2) Return your voted ballot so that it is postmarked not later than election day. Local election officials must receive it before 3:00 p.m. on election day.

The Commonwealth Elections Commission begin mailing ballots approximately 45 days before the election.

Due to its status, Puerto Rico does not send representatives to the U.S. Senate or directly participate in the election of the President and Vice President of the U.S.

At the Federal level, a Resident Commissioner to the House of Representatives is elected.

If you are outside the U.S. and have not received your Commonwealth ballot in a timely manner, use the Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot. See instructions in Chapter 2, page 12.

C. Oath/Witness Requirements

The FPCA and the ballot return envelope must be sworn to. The person who administers the oath is verifying your identity and your status (for example, student, agricultural worker, etc.).

Students must obtain the signature of an official in the school registrar's office.

Dependents, agricultural workers, and airline crew members must swear an oath before a notary public.

Overseas electors must obtain the signature of a consular officer.

D. Electronic Transmission of FPCAs and Ballots

Puerto Rico does not allow electronic transmission of the FPCA, the blank absentee ballot or the voted absentee ballot.

Instructions continue in Section III: Uniformed Services & Civilians Outside U.S.

III. UNIFORMED SERVICES & CIVILIANS OUTSIDE U.S.

A. Where To Send It

Mail the FPCA to:

Secretary, Commonwealth Elections Commission
